

The Wisconsin Arts Board is currently accepting Phase 1 applications for Creative Communities project grants.

The Phase 1 application deadline is 3pm on February 24, 2022.

The Creative Communities grants program (CCP) encourages arts education, cultural understanding, and community arts development in Wisconsin. It provides support for projects that further the Arts Board's goals in the following three areas: Arts Education, Folk and Traditional Arts, and Local Arts.

To access the FY23 Phase 1 application, please visit the Creative Communities page on our website. Once there, please review the information on that page and click on the link to the Creative Communities Phase 1 Guidelines before beginning the online application. The Phase 1 application form is available through the APPLY Here! link in the top right corner of the page.
