QUOTE OF THE DAY

"We painters use the same license as poets and madmen." – Paolo Veronese

"There is a beauty in discovery. There is mathematics in music, a kinship of science and poetry in the description of nature, and exquisite form in a molecule. Attempts to place different disciplines in different camps are revealed as artificial in the face of the unity of knowledge. All literate men are sustained by the philosopher, the historian, the political analyst, the economist, the scientist, the poet, the artisan and the musician." – Glenn T. Seaborg

"Language is not a handmaiden to perception; it is perception; it gives shape to what would otherwise be inert and dead. The shaping power of language cannot be avoided. We cannot choose to distance ourselves from it. We can only choose to employ it in one way rather than another." – Stanley Fish

“If you're going to do something wrong, do it big, because the punishment is the same either way.” – Jayne Mansfield

“No matter what people tell you, words and ideas can change the world.” – Robin Williams
