QUOTE(S) OF THE DAY

Today's quotes are from last night's Tony Awards.

"May we, their descendants, never lose sight of what they taught us." – Tony Shalhoub

"When I moved to New York, I was told to change my last name from Mendez to Matthews, or I wouldn't work. I'm so proud to be part of a community that celebrates diversity and individuality ... Be your true self and the world will take note." – Lindsay Mendez

"Thousands upon thousands of Latin people showed up and paid unreasonable prices to see themselves reflected back and see someone like themselves talking about them to them. My hope is one day our stories won't be the exception, but the rule." – John Leguizamo

"About eight years ago, I decided that I need to shake things up, I needed to scare myself again and challenge myself again, because I felt I had more to offer as an actor. This performance has been the culmination of a lot of that work, and this award is a lovely vote of confidence that I've been on the right path." – Nathan Lane

"All of this year's Best Musical nominees are based on films, but only one of those films has paid for my boat." – Tina Fey
