QUOTE OF THE DAY

“Everyone thinks they can write a play; you just write down what happened to you. But the art of it is drawing from all the moments of your life.” – Neil Simon

“Only through art can we emerge from ourselves and know what another person sees.” – Marcel Proust

“You can try to take sorrow and make it into something enduring, meaningful and beautiful. I always feel guilty that this is my job, that I get to do this.” – Alice Hoffman

“Always dream and shoot higher than you know you can do. Do not bother just to be better than your contemporaries or predecessors. Try to be better than yourself.” – William Faulkner

“Who is the happiest of men? He who values the merits of others, and in their pleasure takes joy, even as though 'twere his own.” – Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

“To be apt in quotation is a splendid and dangerous gift. Splendid, because it ornaments a man's speech with other men's jewels; dangerous, for the same reason.” – Robertson Davies
