QUOTE OF THE DAY

"Instructions for living a life: Pay attention. Be astonished. Tell about it." – Mary Oliver

"When I read great literature, great drama, speeches, or sermons, I feel that the human mind has not achieved anything greater than the ability to share feelings and thoughts through language." – James Earl Jones

"Better to write for yourself and have no public, than to write for the public and have no self." – Cyril Connolly

"The first idea that the child must acquire, in order to be actively disciplined, is that of the difference between good and evil; and the task of the educator lies in seeing that the child does not confound good with immobility and evil with activity." – Maria Montessori

"He that would live in peace and at ease, must not speak all he knows, nor judge all he sees." – Benjamin Franklin

"I often quote myself. It adds spice to my conversation." – George Bernard Shaw

Generative AI in the Performing Arts Survey
Annie Dorsen and SMU DataArts
Through September

> Annie Dorsen is partnering with SMU DataArts to conduct a study of the material impacts of generative AI on artists working in theater, dance, and live music. The survey explores how AI is affecting artists' income, employment opportunities, creative processes, administrative work, and future planning. Findings will help inform policy, advocacy, funding, and support efforts across the field.
