QUOTE OF THE DAY

"I believe that the justification of art is the internal combustion it ignites in the hearts of men and not its shallow, externalized, public manifestations. The purpose of art is not the release of a momentary ejection of adrenalin but is, rather, the gradual, lifelong construction of a state of wonder and serenity." – Glenn Gould

"The aim of every artist is to arrest motion, which is life, by artificial means and hold it fixed so that a hundred years later, when a stranger looks at it, it moves again since it is life. Since man is mortal, the only immortality possible for him is to leave something behind him that is immortal since it will always move. This is the artist's way of scribbling "Kilroy was here" on the wall of the final and irrevocable oblivion through which he must someday pass." – William Faulkner

"Every time I have had a problem, I have confronted it with the ax of art." – Yayoi Kusama

"The young man knows the rules, but the old man knows the exceptions." – Oliver Wendell Holmes, Sr.

"Good taste is the enemy of comedy." – Mel Brooks

"I didn't like the play, but then I saw it under adverse conditions - the curtain was up." – Groucho Marx
