QUOTE OF THE DAY

"Creators, makers of the new, can never become obsolete, for in the arts there is no correct answer. The story of discoverers could be told in simple chronological order, since the latest science replaces what went before. But the arts are another story — a story of infinite addition. We must find order in the random flexings of the imagination." – Daniel J. Boorstin

"To encourage literature and the arts is a duty which every good citizen owes to his country." – George Washington

I see little more important to the future of our country and our civilization than the full recognition of the place of the artist." – John F. Kennedy

"The arts and humanities teach us who we are and what we can be. They lie at the very core of the culture of which we're a part." – Ronald Reagan

“We’ve got to support our artists and celebrate their work, and do our part to ensure that the American creative spirit that has defined us from the very beginning will thrive for generations to come.” – Barak Obama

“Music education opens doors that help children pass from school into the world around them—a world of work, culture, intellectual activity, and human involvement. The future of our nation depends on providing our children with a complete education that includes music.” – Gerald R. Ford

“When you get to a fork in the road, take it.” – Yogi Berra
