QUOTE(S) OF THE DAY

“All art is at once surface and symbol. Those who go beneath the surface do so at their peril. Those who read the symbol do so at their peril. It is the spectator, and not life, that art really mirrors. Diversity of opinion about a work of art shows that the work is new, complex, and vital.” – Oscar Wilde

“Make the most of yourself by fanning the tiny, inner sparks of possibility into flames of achievement.” - Golda Meir

“The struggle is always between the individual and his sacred right to express himself and the power structure that seeks conformity, suppression, and obedience.” – William O. Douglas

“When you’re 50 you start thinking about things you haven’t thought about before. I used to think getting old was about vanity - but actually it’s about losing people you love. Getting wrinkles is trivial.” – Eugene O’Neill

“Life is like a box of crayons. Most people are the 8-color boxes, but what you're really looking for are the 64-color boxes with the sharpeners on the back. I fancy myself to be a 64-color box, though I've got a few missing.” – John Mayer

“I used to wake up at 4 A.M. and start sneezing, sometimes for five hours. I tried to find out what sort of allergy I had but finally came to the conclusion that it must be an allergy to consciousness.” – James Thurber
