QUOTE OF THE DAY

“Go into the arts. I’m not kidding. The arts are not a way to make a living. They are a very human way of making life more bearable. Practicing an art, no matter how well or badly, is a way to make your soul grow, for heaven’s sake. Sing in the shower. Dance to the radio. Tell stories. Write a poem to a friend, even a lousy poem. Do it as well as you possibly can. You will get an enormous reward. You will have created something.” – Kurt Vonnegut

“Beauty in art is often nothing but ugliness subdued.” – Jean Rostand

“An artist is not paid for his labor but for his vision.” – James Whistler

“We relish news of our heroes, forgetting that we are extraordinary to somebody too.” – Helen Hayes

“The artist must create a spark before he can make a fire and before art is born, the artist must be ready to be consumed by the fire of his own creation.” – Auguste Rodin

“Today’s mighty oak is just yesterday’s nut, that held its ground.” – David Icke

“Every good poet includes a critic; the reverse will not hold.” – William Shenstone
