QUOTE OF THE DAY

"I would maintain that thanks are the highest form of thought, and that gratitude is happiness doubled by wonder." – Gilbert K. Chesterton

"One's philosophy is not best expressed in words; it is expressed in the choices one makes. In the long run, we shape our lives and we shape ourselves. The process never ends until we die. And, the choices we make are ultimately our own responsibility." – Eleanor Roosevelt

"It is the high privilege and sacred duty of those now living to educate their successors and fit them, by intelligence and virtue, for the inheritance which awaits them. In this beneficent work sections and races should be forgotten and partisanship should be unknown." – James A. Garfield

"Unless you choose to do great things with it, it makes no difference how much you are rewarded, or how much power you have." – Oprah Winfrey

"Wise sayings often fall on barren ground, but a kind word is never thrown away." – Arthur Helps

"I wonder if other dogs think poodles are members of a weird religious cult." – Rita Rudner

The Wisconsin Arts News is a free service of the Wisconsin Arts Board, the state agency responsible for the support and development of the arts in Wisconsin, on the web at www.artsboard.wisconsin.gov. These articles are from a variety of sources and, therefore, do not necessarily reflect the views of the Arts Board.

Despite our best efforts, links may fail without warning since each news source posts and archives its articles differently. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Artists, as well as arts and community organizations interested in posting event information on the web should go to www.portalwisconsin.org. This growing resource, which is separate from the Wisconsin Arts News, is an additional means of getting your information in front of people interested in the arts and culture in Wisconsin.
